*Call to Worship from Psalm 146

L: Praise the Lord!

P: I will praise the Lord as long as I live and sing praises to my God all my life long.

L: Do not put your trust in princes, in mortals, in whom there is no help.

P: When their breath departs, they return to the earth; on that very day their plans perish.

L: Happy are those whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord their God,

P: The Lord will reign forever, your God, O Zion, for all generations. Praise the Lord!

Opening Prayer (Offered by all)

Eternal and abiding God, as we gather here to give thanks for all your saints who have gone before us, we ask that you grant to each one of us the same faith and spirit of love that you granted to them. We rejoice in the triumphs of your people and pray that we might find inspiration in the examples of their lives, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Scripture Readings: Hebrews 9:24-28; Mark 12:38-44

L: The Word of God, for the people of God.

P: Thanks be to God!

Imagine Together

Imagine: God speaks to us through prophets of ages past and through visionaries and leaders today. God speaks in our hearts “with sighs too deep for human words” (Romans 8). And God speaks through spirited debate as we seek to discern the right thing to do. In all these ways, God stretches our imagination for what’s possible and what’s necessary.

Together: God calls us into community. We follow Jesus as siblings in faith. United with other believers, we form a Christian movement living the way of Jesus. Faith is not a solitary life but one that brings our hearts close to others. As a statement of faith from the United Church of Canada affirms, “we are not alone; we live in God’s world.”

The spiritual practice of generosity arises from imagining all that God calls us to do as a community. Our donations to our congregation make it possible to turn what we imagine into a reality. Through our annual commitments to our congregation, we imagine together all that we can do.
