*Call to Worship from Psalm 91

L: Because you have made the Lord your refuge, the Most High your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you.

P: For he will command his angels concerning the faithful and guard them in all their ways.

L: On their hands they will bear you up so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.

P: Those who love the Lord will be delivered and the Lord will protect those who know his name.

L: When we call to the Lord we will be answered, and the Lord will be with us in trouble.

P: With long life the Lord will satisfy the faithful and will show them salvation.

*Opening Prayer (Offered by all)

Lord Most High, our dwelling place and our refuge, we know that we are heard when we call on you and that you are with us in all that we do. Be with us here in this place of worship, show us your salvation, and guide us in living as your people in the world. Amen.

Scripture Readings: Hebrews 5:1-10; Mark 10:35-45

L: The Word of God, for the people of God.

P: Thanks be to God!

October 2nd Mile Giving

This year's Neighbors in Need theme "Mental Health Justice for All: Mental Health is a Universal Human Right" highlights our God-given right to mental health. Everyone is created in God's image, and everybody should receive quality mental health care.

In 2015, the General Synod of the United Church of Christ passed a resolution to become WISE (Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive, and Engaged) for mental health.

A just world for all is a world where the human rights and well-being of people with mental health challenges are respected, no matter who you are or where you are in life's mental health journey.
