*Call to Worship from Psalm 126

L: When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

P: Our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with shouts of joy.

L: It was said among the nations, “The Lord has done great things for them.”

P: The Lord restored our fortunes, and we rejoiced.

L: May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy.

P: Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves.

Opening Prayer (Offered by all)

Loving God, we gather here to worship you and to recall the great things you have done for your children. We are aware of times we have cried out to you through our tears and times we have praised you with shouts of joy. We know that you are with us in both and always will be. Amen.

Scripture Readings: Hebrews 7:23-28; Mark 10:46-52

L: The Word of God, for the people of God.

P: Thanks be to God!

Anthem “Open My Eyes, That I May See”

October 2nd Mile Giving

This year's Neighbors in Need theme "Mental Health Justice for All: Mental Health is a Universal Human Right" highlights our God-given right to mental health. Everyone is created in God's image, and everybody should receive quality mental health care.

In 2015, the General Synod of the United Church of Christ passed a resolution to become WISE (Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive, and Engaged) for mental health.

A just world for all is a world where the human rights and well-being of people with mental health challenges are respected, no matter who you are or where you are in life's mental health journey.
